

Green Award for inland navigation

Linz
October 12, 2022
Jan Fransen
Executive Director

Milestones

*Founding
Scope: seagoing tankers*

1994

*Expansion of scope to include dry bulk, container
and gas carriers*

2001-2021

*Inland navigation
certificate
1.000*

2022

2001

Green Award wins Thor Heyerdahl Award

2011

Launching Green Award for inland navigation

2022

- ✓ Operating in more than 30 countries, unique in the world
- ✓ Seafaring: 10 ship types
- ✓ Inland navigation: 8 ship types
- ✓ More than 2,000 ships certified
- ✓ Hundreds of shipping companies, management companies, oil majors certified
- ✓ More than 150 incentive providers
- ✓ Monitoring/input by (inter)national Board of Experts and Committee
- ✓ Great plans!

Why

Together

Improving environment and safety by encouraging sustainability and (re)recognition of cleaner and safer inland vessels.

Initiated by Dutch Ports and Ministry

- Relatively clean transport mode
- Sustainability imperative
- Green Deal
- Fit for 55
- SDGs

How

Voluntary, non-profit system based on

- ✓ Ambitious programme of requirements: developed and supported by all stakeholders
- ✓ Verification: physical inspections on board by experienced inspectors
- ✓ Certification: assessment of inspection results by separate department
- ✓ Reward: image, financial/operational benefits

GREEN AWARD

What | Ship types

GREEN AWARD

What | Development

* 9 ships with platinum label

What | Incentive Providers

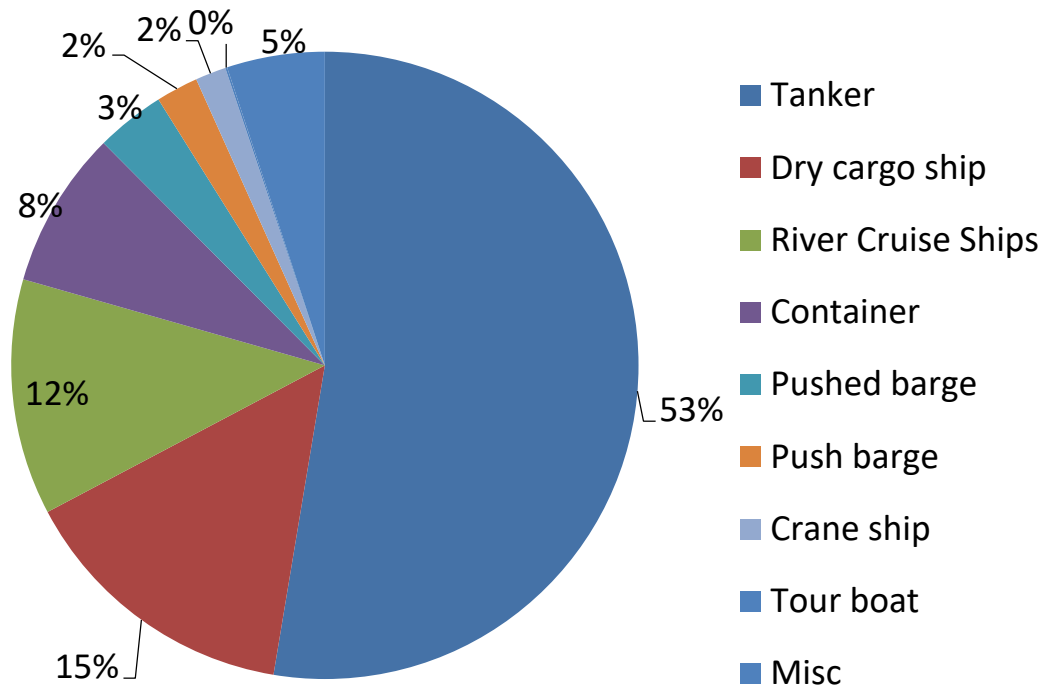

Around 40 ports, municipalities, (financial) service providers and suppliers

- ✓ Encourage greening of inland shipping fleet
- ✓ Contribute to better climate and environment
- ✓ Give substance to sustainability policy
- ✓ Reward through discounted port fees, operational and other financial benefits

What | Incentive Providers

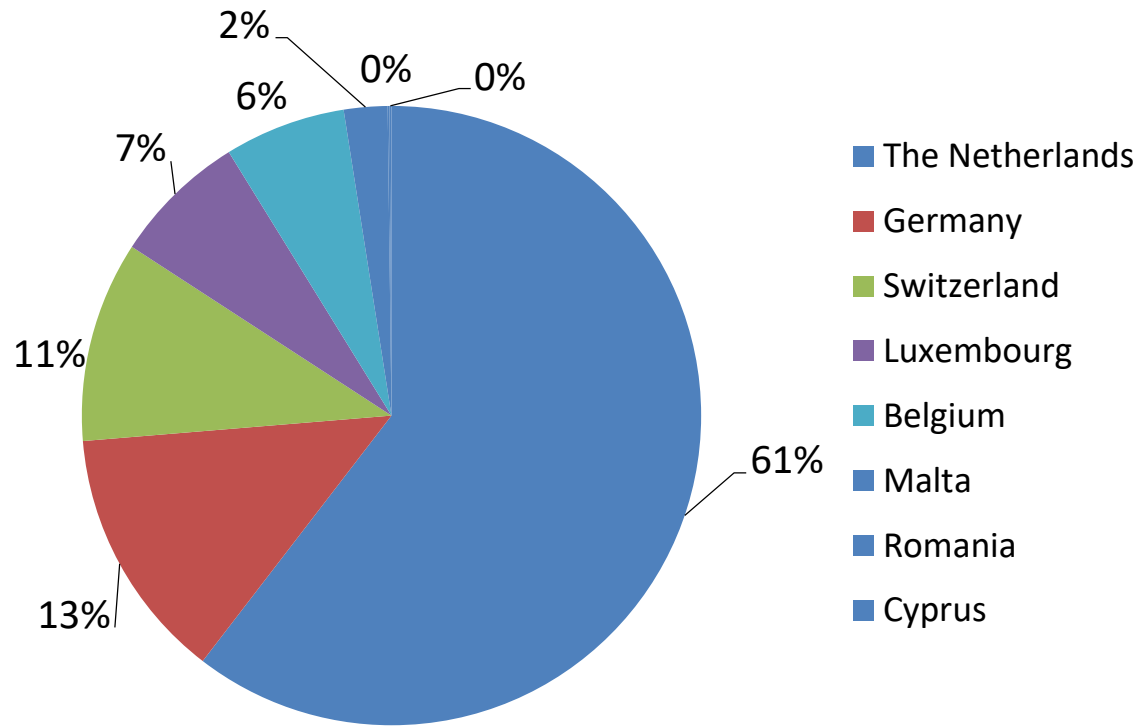

Future

2022Q1

- ✓ Further development of Programme of Requirements
- ✓ Modules for various vessel types
- ✓ Separate programme for river cruise ships

Future

2022Q1

Expansion within Europe

Are you hoisting the flag?

GREEN AWARD

www.greenaward.org | inlandshipping@greenaward.org

